10 SUMMER VACATION TIPS FOR KIDS: KEEPING THEM ACTIVE AND ENGAGED

(FROM THE FOUNDERS' DESK)

Here are some tips for summer vacations for children aged 4 to 14 years

Plan Outdoor Activities: Organize fun outdoor activities such as picnics, nature walks, bike rides, or visits to the park to keep them active and engaged.

Explore Creativity: Encourage creativity with arts and crafts projects, painting, drawing, or DIY activities that allow them to express themselves.

Read Together. Set aside time for reading together or encourage them to explore books on their own to foster a love for reading and learning.

Summer Camps: Consider enrolling them in summer camps or workshops tailored to their interests, whether it's sports, arts, science, or music.

Screen Time Balance: Limit screen time and encourage a balance between digital activities and offline play to promote healthy habits.

Family Time: Plan family outings or activities that involve everyone, such as board games, movie nights, or cooking together, to strengthen family bonds.

Learning Adventures: Turn everyday experiences into learning opportunities by visiting historical sites, museums or taking educational day trips to spark their curiosity.

Stay Hydrated and Sun-Safe: Remind them to drink plenty of water, eat seasonal fruits like watermelon, grapes and try various juices to stay hydrated and protected from the sun.

Promoting Independence: Encouraging Stays with Maternal or Paternal Grandparents. depending on your family setup and residence distance.

Relaxation and Rest: Ensure they have downtime for relaxation and rest to recharge their energy levels and prevent burnout during the vacation period.

CUBS-SANKALP STUDENTS ENCOURAGE VOTING WITH POSTCARD CAMPAIGN

Cubs-Sankalp School, Vijayapura, Students from Grade 1 to Grade 7 wrote heartfelt postcards to their parents, urging them to vote in the upcoming Lok Sabha elections on 07 May 2024 in Vijayapura. Through this initiative, students gained insight into the traditional postcard system of communication, reflecting on a time before the existence of mobile phones. This endeavor aimed to foster awareness among students about the significance of the Lok Sabha elections and to remind their parents of their duty as responsible citizens of India.
